

Erik Jimenez

Erik Jimenez currently serves as the Chief Policy Deputy in the State Treasurer's office. In this role, Erik works on a variety of projects that range from infrastructure financing to increasing financial security for marginalized communities. During the COVID-19 pandemic, he also worked to administer the largest small business assistance program in Nevada history.

Erik has previously represented various gaming, health care, education, energy, and transportation clients in front of the Nevada Legislature, and has also worked to enact disability reforms throughout the State. Erik holds a bachelor's degree in Political Science and a master's degree in Public Administration and Policy from the University of Nevada Reno.

Erik also serves on numerous government and non-profit boards, including serving as the Chair of the Advisory Committee for the Nevada Office of Minority Health and Equity, and was appointed by Governor Sisolak to serve on the Nevada Statewide Independent Living Council.
